DR. WRIGHT IS MAD

He Defies the Committee and Demands Investigation.

FIVE MEN WILL SIZE HIM UP

Walker's Claim Will Be Ignored -- Monroe Street Paving Tax Will Be Readjusted.

When the anticipated communica tion from ex-City Physician Wright came up for consideration last night there was considerable of a jangle mong the city fathers. The comrounication began as follows: "Gentle men-Inasmuch as the report of the committee on poor, together with the mayor, reflects on my administration as city physician, and contains charges ntal to my character, also, in absence of, or due notice of proper investigation, I hereby, with justice to myself, sa well as the general public, respectfully call the attention of your honerable body to the various charges contained in said report."

The notice served upon him by the city clerk was then quoted, after which a resume was made of the charges preferred by the committee. He said that the notice which he received contained no date and that the other notice was by messenger the other notice was by messenger when his wife was sick. He returned word that he would appear before the committee at its convenience with his books, but received no further notice, although he waited patiently. He in-sists that he can prove to an unbissed mind that he is innocent of any dere-lection and defies the committee to substantiate what it reported. He does not think the committee competent to judge of what is proper medical ser-

Alderman Doyle and he thought Dr. Wright should be given a chance to clear himself if he could. Alderman O'Donnell did not think the doctor should have another hearing as he had been given three weeks or more to which to appear before the committee and explain the chaotic state in which his business was found.

Trying to Square Himself, Alderman Saunders wasn't satisfied with his brother's remarks and orated with his brother's remarks and orated forcibly upon the injustice of such action. He had been upbraided by his constituents for voting as he did, and on behalf of himself and those aldermen who had holstered up the physician, he wanted another investigation made. Alderman O'Donnell wanted the whole matter referred to three citizens, but matter referred to three citizens, but his motion was declared out of order. A motion to refer to a committee of five prevailed. Aldermen Conger, Emmer, Turner, O'Donnell and Dun-ton were selected.

The comptroller reported as correct accounts amounting to $12,253.29, which were ordered paid.

The board of public works submitted an estimate for paving Jefferson avenue, from Westiny avenue to Hall street, with asphalt, which was $60,-

Each and every one advised the city to light the claim in Chicago Will Furnish Evidence. A suit had been begun in Chicago but never pushed, and that city volunteered to furnish evidence in its possession to assist the city. It was recommended that Walker's claim be ignored, and the council adopted the report.

In regard to the motion made by Alderman Turner, December 14, requesting the city attorney to make a report as to the best method for the city to pursue in collecting the account of H. C. Bettinghouse for work performed in lowering wires on Canal street. Mr. Taylor suggested that the comptroller present the bill and demand payment of the Consolidated Street Railway company. If the company refused, the fact should be reported to the council and present ported to the council and proceedings began in court. Adopted.

The special committee appointed to consider the appeals of E. R. Wilson, Mrs. Boyd Pantind, Mrs. E. J. Aldrich and J. C. Wenham on the paying of Monroe street reported, and asked that the roll be not ratified because the park frontage had been assessed against frontage had been assessed against private property owners. It was also recommended that the city pay for paving a portion of Campau aquare, as it is regarded as city property, it having been bought and paid for by the municipality. Alderman Carpenter moved that that portion of the report referring to Campan Square be stricken out. Carried. A new district was presented and next Thursday night appeals will be heard. appeals will be heard.

Alderman Tateum presented a resolution which was adopted, setting aside Jefferson avenue, from Oakes street to Wealthy avenue, as a thoroughfare upon which gentlemen can speed their horses while there is snow upon the

A resolution was introduced by Alderman Carpenter, which had for its purpose the instituting of condemnatory proceedings against the South Division Street Gravel Road company. That part of the road referred to is the one mile inside of the city limits. Alderman Turner and the stockholders of the company were to hold a meeting during the coming week, and moved that action be postponed until after that time. He was of the opinion that a proposition would be made to the city. Alderman Dregge and Carpenter wanted the resolution adopted, but Alderman Turner's motion carried. BENDERED HIS DECREE,

Judge Grove Decides & Big Pine Land

The suit brought by Henry N. Anderson and Russell Griffin against La Flora Baker, Geo. F. Stearns and the Nortern National bank of Big Rapids eccupied considerable time in the circuit court last summer. The parties belong in Mecosta county, but the suit was transferred to the Kent circuit. A decree was handed down by Judge Grove yesterday. The suit grows out of a lumber deal of companies in 1886 purchased a tract of isand at West Troy, guaranteed to cut thirteen million feet of pine, and Baker, who was then eashier of the Big Mapide bank, agreed to pay $5.50 a theur and for any shortage. The purchase price was $45,000, of which $5,000 was pass down and a note and mortgage for the balance was given. Baker assigned the note and mortgage to the Northern National as security for a loan of $20,000 and it was endorsed by Mr. Stearns, president of the bank. Anderson & Griffin paid $23,000 on the note, most of at to the bank, and then refused to the bank, and then refused to pay more, claiming there was a big shortage in the timber and acked to shortage in the Ember and a-ked to have the note and mortgage discharged. The $20,000 note with the Anderson & Griffin paper was paid by Bates and Stearns, and then the collateral was assigned to the hank to apply on money alleged to be due the bank by Baker, who had resigned the cashiership and gone to Chesse. gone to Chicago. Anderson & Griffin commenced suit in April, 1888, to have their note and mortgage canceled be-cause of the shortage of the timber. On the trial it was shown that the shortage was 6,661,915 feet, that complainant had exercised due diligence in cutting the timber economically, and that Mr. Stearns and the Northern National bank knew the shortage existed when the sale was made. The decree banded lown this morning erders the discharge of the note and mortgage against com-plainants and gives complainant per-mission to bring suit against Baker if they desire, to recover $3,535 paid in excess of the actual value of the timber according to the terms of the guarantee.

HELD FOR TRIAL.

Bougland and Remington the Livery

Sharps Must Answer, The larceny case against Remington, Hosgland and Haynes was disposed of vesterday. The young men it is clamed procured a livery rig from Lacy during the summer upon false representations. They informed the liveryman by tele-phone that Mr. Walsh, who lives on Ottawa street, wanted a team and double carriage delivered at his house. When the rig was left there and when the man had returned, the boys jumped in and drove about the city all day, leaving the carriage in a dilapi-dated condition and the horses ex-hausted late at night. They were arrested charged with grand larceny and the case has been heard in police court. Yesterday Remington and Hoagland were held for trial at the present ferm of the superior court. Haynes was dis-

RELEASED ON HABEAS CORPUS, Fred Lane Was Arrested Without Proper Authority.

Fred Lane, who was arrested on a telegram signed by Chief Inspector Marsh of Chicago, by Detectives Smith and Darr, made application for a habeas corpus before Judge Adsit, yesterday. The petition claimed that Lane had been arrested without due process of law on a telegram from Chi-cago, sent by a person whom he did not know, charging larceny. He said be was not guilty of any crime, and wanted his release. Judge Adsit discharged the petitioner. After adjourning court Judge Adsit said that when such arrests were made the police were running considerable risk. There was no authority authorising such action, and whenever application was made for a writ of habeas corpus the court would be compelled to grant it.

FOR RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS. A Nest of Fences on Trial in the Police Court. Ana Schuitema, Sr., and his sons Burt and Arie, Jr., were arraigned in police court yesterday for receiving stolen goods from Bogerd and Kipp, the young burglars convicted in the superior court. In the cellar under the shop was found a quantity of cigars and tobacco taken from A. Vonk & Sons' store, corner of Wealthy avenue and Centermial street, in regard to which the respondents made several conflicting statements. In the first place it was stated that one box had been bought for fifty cents. The case was continued.

MUST PAY THE TAX. The Supreme Court Affirms the Action

The action of the Superior court in the case of Christian Baisch and others against the city has been affirmed by the Supreme court. The complainants appealed from the assessment levied for the construction of a sewer in Coit & Co.'s addition, and the city clerk was enjoined from selling their property to pay the tax. By the action of the court the injunction is dissolved and the tax must be paid. The property will soon be advertised for sale and the city clerk says that those who come in and pay their tax before the advertising is let will save themselves considerable ex-pense and trouble.

STRETCHED HIS LICENSE,

Almond Dewey Alleged to Have Vic-

inted the Liquor Law. A warrant was sworn out yesterday for the arrest of Almond Dewey, owner of a saloon at No. 497 South Division street. Dewey's license expired some time ago, but it is claimed that he did not renew it. He has been selling liquor just the same, it is charged, and he managed to escape detection for several weeks. Yesterday the authori-ties tumbled to his racket, and he will be locked up for not having the necessary red card.

Police, Circuit, Superior.

The cases brought by the city against Stephen We den for violation of the health ordinance have been continued over the term in the superior court.

A motion for temporary alimony was made in the case of Stella M. Calkins vs. Andrew M. Calkins in the superior court yesterday and it was granted. John Doe, that old time crook, will soon be in police court again. A warrant was sworn out yesterday for his arrest charging him with having stolen a quantity of clothing. Frank J. Fox has begun proceedings in the circuit court to foreclose a mortgage for $200 on property owned by Frank W. Wilson and his wife in Vergennes township.

Nelson Webster was convicted of disorderly conduct in police court and fined $6.85. Frederick W. Cogswell has sued his

In both of the cases sgainst Hennessy & Waters, charged with selling hquor after hours, the respondents were held for tral in the superior court, one of the cases to be tried this term and one next term. The saloon is located at No. 65 Pearl street, Powers' opera house block.

Humane Agent Randolph yesterday arrested Michael Collins for cruelty to animals. It was charged in the com-plaint that the respondent kept a horse and cow which he did not properly house and protect from the wintry blasts. Collins denied his guilt and his trial was set for Wednesday at 10

There is nothing that can give the people of Grand Rapids and the surrounding country more pleasure than the announcement by Spring & Co., of the commencement of their annual linen sale. So popular have these sales become that they are looked forward to as a festival week. As the World's Fair will be to Chicago, the May feetival is to Cincinnati, or the exposition is to Detroit, so is this great sale of Spring & Co. to Grand Rapids. Monday morning. January 11, the seventeenth annual sale will commence. This wonderful display of linen which is placed before the people at even less than manufacturers' prices, will attract people from all over the state, and Mr. Spring assures the public that this will excell all past records in the large stock to select from and its special inducements to buyers.
